

Trial by Written Declaration Court Delivery Authorization

Ticketbust.com suggests that all documents being submitted to the court be sent to the court using Certified Mail or FedEx so that your documents can be tracked and that there is confirmation that the court did in fact receive your documents. If you do not wish to have your documents submitted to the court either by Certified Mail or FedEx so that you have confirmation of their receipt by the court, then we will submit your documents to the court by regular mail.

If you would like to have your documents sent by either Certified Mail or FedEx, please check the appropriate box below agreeing to be charged for your selected option, if not please select Option 3, for regular mail. Please note that the option you select will be used each time we need to send documents to the court on your behalf.
